New Liz McCafferty Park

Smooth Rock Falls – On Friday, the Town welcomed members of the public to a Grand Opening of the new Liz McCafferty Park. Local MPP Guy Bourgouin attended the grand opening along with residents of Smooth Rock Falls to celebrate the updated park that continues to be in memory of Elizabeth McCafferty.

““It was a pleasure to be part of the grand opening because this playground has been and will continue to be a gem in the community. Considering the amount of time our youth spend on technology, this beautiful park will encourage them to live a healthier and active lifestyle”
- Guy Bourgouin, MPP for Mushkegowuk-James Bay””

“It’s important to council and I, to encourage our youth to have a healthy & active lifestyles, and in order to serve our community better, we invested towards purchasing safe, updated playground equipment for our young growing families. We are very pleased with the project, and hope that the new generation(s) will enjoy the new Liz McCafferty Park as much as the generations did before.” – Michel Arseneault, Mayor, Town of Smooth Rock Falls

Quick facts:

- Installation of new playground equipment that benefits children of all ages
